BUSY SUMMER! WHAT'S NEXT?

The CoHo has had a busy summer between markets, parties, fundraising events, teen clay camps, and many new classes we've introduced. We are so grateful for your support. It's only because of you that we are able to run a studio that welcomes the community to come in and create. We are actively planning some classes for the coming months that will feature great opportunities to create some quality handmade gifts for the upcoming holidays. Additionally, we are working on planning some fun events such as the kid's tea party in September and a costume party in October. Keep an eye on our schedule online and don't forget, we also have walk-in hours. I can't wait to create with you soon! ~Tina

WALK-IN OPEN STUDIO

In case you didn't know, The Color House is a walk-in art studio! We offer a whole menu of projects you can work on including pottery painting, canvas painting, wood burning, glass painting, and clay projects during any of our open hours! Great for all ages. So grab a few friends and head on over. We are lucky enough to be located above a super yummy bbq restaurant so food, beer, and wine are all available bring on up to your creative session. Makes for a great girls night out or other friendly gathering. Click HERE to learn more.

PARTIES & FUNDRAISING

We have so much fun throwing art parties for our celebration friends! Art parties are great for birthdays, retirement celebrations, showers, bachelor(ette), or any other celebration. From pottery painting to canvas painting, glass etching to wood burning, we have something for everyone. Click HERE to find out more about holding an art party for any occasion at The Color House. We would love to celebrate with you! The CoHo also offers pottery painting and canvas painting fundraising and you can hold those in our studio OR at a location of your choice. Contact us to learn more!
